

Name: _____

Chapter 9

Across

4. A country that has progressed relatively for a long continuum of development
7. Fuel that derives from plant material and animal waste
8. Energy from steam or hot water produced from hot or molten underground rocks
9. A measure of the extent of each country's gender inequality
10. The quantity of something that consumers are willing and able to buy

Down

1. A country that is at a relatively early stage in the process of economic development
2. Solar energy systems that collect energy through the use of mechanical devices
3. The number of births per,1000 women
5. A nuclear powerplant that creates its own fuel from plutonium
6. Creation of energy by joining the nuclei of two hydrogen atoms to form helium