

Chapter 9 Crossword Puzzle

Across

6. An eating disorder that involves the relentless pursuit of thinness through starvation.
 13. Doubles in size.
 14. Triples in weight and size.
 15. Whether an individual has same-sex or other-sex attractions.
 16. Infections contracted primarily through sexual contact, including oral-genital and anal-genital contact.
 18. Part of adolescent egocentrism that involves an adolescent's sense of uniqueness and invincibility. Grand glorious deeds will perform in adulthood.
 19. Immune to normal troubles and dangers, you think nothing bad can happen to you.

20. Concept that adolescents have the cognitive ability to develop hypothesis, or best guesses about ways to solve problems and deduce its implications..
 21. Involves higher-order cognitive activities such as reasoning, making decisions, and monitoring one's cognitive progress.
Down
 1. A type of estrogen that is in girls, associated with breast, uterine, and skeletal development.
 2. The heightened self-consciousness of adolescents.
 3. Piaget's 4th stage of cognitive development.
 4. Adolescents' belief that others are as interested in them as they themselves are. Fantasize about people's reactions to their appearance and behavior.

5. An eating disorder in which the person consistently follow a binge/purge pattern.
 7. Takes a person from childhood to adulthood, including socioemotional, cognitive, and physical changes.
 8. Thickens and improves ability to process information.
 9. Sex glands, the testes in males and the ovaries in females.
 10. A structure in the higher portion of the brain that monitors eating and sex, puberty starts here.
 11. A hormone associated in boys with the development of genitals, an increase in height, and a change in voice.
 12. The physical components of adolescence; a period of rapid physical and sexual maturation.
 17. Accidents, homicides, and suicides are the leading cause of death in _____.