

Name: _____ Date: _____

Chapter 9: Physical and Cognitive Development in Adolescents EXTRA CREDIT

Across

2. There is a _____ in school satisfaction from middle to junior high school
4. During puberty the corpus callosum _____
6. Adolescent pregnancy has _____ in recent decades
9. The beginning of _____ marks the end of puberty in girls

10. The intense fear of gaining weight and distorted perceptions of weight
11. The prefrontal _____ does not fully mature until age 25
12. Powerful chemical substances secreted by the endocrine glands

Down

1. Hormone in girls that effects breast, uterine, and skeletal development

3. Hormone in boys that effects, genital, height, and voice changes
5. Unintentional injury, homicide, and suicide are the leading causes of _____ in adolescents
7. Some high school criticisms is that there are low expectations for
8. Anorexia and Bulimia are more common in