

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 9

Across

5. Is the study of populations
 6. an increase in the ratio or density of people living in urban areas rather than in rural areas
 7. General pattern of demographic change from high birth and death rates to low birth and death rates, as observed in the history of more-developed countries
 9. Countries that have been identified by united nations as showing the fewest signs of developments in terms of income , human resources and economic diversification.
 10. The average length of time that an individuals is expected to live

11. The average number of children a women of childbearing years would have in her lifetime, if she had children at the current rate for country.

Down

1. Which land that can be used to grow crops
 2. The percentage of newborn individuals in a population that can be expected to survive to a given age
 3. The basic facilities of a country or region, such as roads, bridges, and sewers
 4. In general , any movement of individuals or populations from one location to another
 8. The classification of members of a population into groups according to age or the distribution of members of population in terms of age groups.