

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 9 & 4 vocab

Across

1. a promissory note which provides payment to the bearer when it is redeemed

4. to be summoned by the IRS to appear in person and provide more information about your tax return

9. a safe place to save money and to make money by earning interest

12. anything that is accepted as payment for goods and services or debts

13. certain allowances on the salary of a worker that are free from taxation

15. a form of currency that has value because a government has backed it and has declared it to have a specific value

17. the compensation a company pays to an employee for work done, paid on a regular basis

18. common currency of the European Union

19. non-profit organizations owned by its members

20. the amount of earnings that is used to calculate what income tax is due

Down

2. any person or organization who pays taxes or is liable for taxation

3. a period of time

5. a group of 17 nations in Europe that share a common currency

6. any money received or earned

7. taxes that are placed on the income of individuals or businesses

8. the total amount of money you earn in a paycheck before paying any taxes

10. the final salary of an individual worker after all taxes and deductions are subtracted

11. the amount of money you receive in a paycheck after all taxes are deducted

14. an overall increase in the price level

16. the US government agency in charge of tax collection and tax law enforcement