

Chapter Five

Across

3. Reunite all Christians on earth and to cooperate among Christian faith traditions in achieving common goals.
5. From the Greek for "one sent forth."
6. Four attributes of the Church mentioned in the Nicene Creed.
9. Having no flaw or defect.
15. Will exist until the end of time; an attribute of the Catholic Church as a result of its divine origin.
16. A reference to Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Word made flesh.
17. Revealed truths contained in Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition that are entrusted to the care of the Church.
18. A series of sixteenth-century schisms from the Catholic Church
21. Term is sometimes used to describe the Church because it is only Church founded by Christ.

22. Diocese of the Pope, Bishop of Rome.

23. A pagan school of thought based upon the ideas of the Greek philosopher Plato that held the existence of a Supreme Being.

24. Heresy arising in the fifth century that claimed there is only one nature in the Person of Christ

25. obstinate denial by a baptized person of some truth that must be believed with divine faith.

Down

1. Remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sin whose guilt has already been forgiven.

2. Will never change in its essential aspects.

4. Persons who were born into schismatic communities.

7. A profession of Christian beliefs by a fourth-century opponent of the Arian heresy.

8. Heresy that held Christ had only a divine mind and will, not a human mind and will.

10. From the Greek word oikoumene

11. A heresy arising in the fourth century advanced by Nestorius

12. Official internal regulations of the Catholic Church.

13. The Church was founded by Christ and given to the Apostles; a mark of the Church.

14. Having to do with any Christian church that broke away from the Catholic Church during the Reformation.

19. Greek term for "Bear of God" or "Mother of God."

20. An ancient heresy that taught, among other things, that salvation came from obtaining secret experiential knowledge and that the material world was evil, a corruption of spirit.