

Chapter One-The Collision of Cultures

Across

3. What group of people came across the Bering Strait around 11, 000 years ago?

5. _____ was established in Mexico City by the Aztecs; it is the greatest city in Central America with population at 100000.

8. What civilization started in 800 A.D. and made a written system, calendar, and trade routes?

9. _____ tribes grew corn and grains and some hunted for Buffalo.

10. What group of people hunted seals, part of the Arctic Circle, and their civilization spanned thousands of miles on frozen lands?

11. Who was a leader in Cuzco that had people tell other tribes why they should ally with the Incas?

12. What native group is in the eastern third of the United States?

Down

1. The Mayans were eventually replaced by the _____ who called themselves Mexica

2. In the United States and Canada, these _____ survived on hunting, gathering supplies, and fishing.

4. The _____ people were an organized society in Mexico and Central America in 1000 B.C.

6. What is the stone and abode terraced structures that largely populate Chaco Canyon known as today?

7. The _____ created the largest empire in the Americas in Peru.