

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter One: Preliminary Considerations

Across

7. Observes the choices people make in various moral situations and draw conclusions about those choices.

9. A set of coherent ideas that result from the conclusions of an ethicist and form an overall moral perspective.

10. A rash depiction of another's words, thoughts, or ideas as one's own without attribution in connection with the submission of scholarly job.

Down

1. Letting others know that you are listening by being involved in a conversation.

Word Bank

Plagiarism

Ethical System

Relativism

Religious Beliefs

Active Listening

Moral Relativists

Law

Absolutophobia

Ethicists

Ethics

2. In 1960, they challenged traditional views that fornication and adultery are immoral.

3. Decisions about right and wrong are completely personal and subjective.

4. The fear of saying unequivocally that certain behavior is unethical.

5. The faith in the truth of a religion's mythological, supernatural, or spiritual elements.

6. The study of the choices people make regarding right and wrong.

8. _____ is not possible without ethics.