

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter Twelve Crossword Puzzle Review

Across

4. uses large amounts of fossil fuel energy, water, commercial fertilizers, and pesticides to produce huge quantities of single crops (monocultures) or livestock animals for sale

6. farmers increase inputs of human and daft labor, fertilizer, and water to get a high yield per area of cultivated land to produce enough food to feed their families and to sell for income

8. a plot is planted with several varieties of the same crop

9. revolution that lasted between 1950 to 1970

11. crops and trees are planted together

12. the practice of traditional farmers simultaneously growing several crops on the same plot

Down

1. concentrations of particular aquatic species suitable for commercial harvesting in a given ocean area or inland body of water

2. fish and shellfish are raised for food

3. produces only enough crops or livestock for a farm family's survival

5. form of industrialized agriculture practiced primarily in tropical developing countries

7. more complex form of intercropping in which many different plants maturing at various times are planted together

10. two or more different crops are grown at the same time on a plot