

Chapters 1-4 Review

Across

3. Giving a chunk of land to someone to rule over entirely
 6. This system used labor outside of a company's bounds to manufacture products
 8. This system gave 50 acres of land to anyone who would pay the passage for immigrants across the Atlantic
 11. Hernando de Soto brought a large number of this animal to the New World, which resulted in the transmission of diseases across the species barrier
 13. The _____ Reformation was a revamping of the Catholic church
 15. The people of a Amerindian confederacy in the Eastern Woodlands made up of five group
 16. Acts that forced goods from America to be traded only with England

17. People who settled illegally on land in the middle colonies that hoped to later acquire the land on legal terms
 19. The transmission of new ideas through letters, newspapers, pamphlets, and books that was sparked by the end of the Licensing Act in 1695
 20. An 18th century philosophical movement that emphasized the use of reason to reevaluate previously accepted doctrines and the power of reason to help understand and shape the world

Down

1. This type of corporation involved the pooling of investors resources
 2. A system of exchanging goods and labor that helped maximize agricultural output and preserve the freeholder ideal during a time of ever-shrinking farms as available land became more scarce

4. Society of plantation owners and slaves that produced subtropical produce
 5. Overthrow of Charles II and loosening of colonial control *check this
 7. Trip from West Africa to the colonies
 9. Groups of landowner vigilantes formed in North and South Carolina in the 1760s and 1770s that demanded the eastern controlled govt provide western districts with more courts, fairer taxation, and greater representation
 10. These are small farms of 30 to 50 acres owned by families or male partners
 12. Amerindian settlements of adobe houses
 14. _____ blankets transmitted diseases to the native of the New World
 18. This was a grant from the Spanish crown to successful conquistadors