

Chapters 15, 16, 20, 21, 37

Across

2. treats Parkinson's disease and relieves tremors and rigidity
 4. treat and control MG
 11. increases urination in urinary retention
 12. treats HTN, angina, prophylaxis, and acute MI
 14. Constricts pupil to promote draining of the aqueous humor
 15. Emergency drug to treat anaphylaxis

17. Treats angina, HTN and liver enzymes will need to be monitored
 18. Short term treatment of muscle spasms, decreases pain therefore increases ROM

Down

1. Treats HF, left or right. can be used to correct A-FIB, Atrial Flutter, or other cardiac dysrhythmias
 3. treats advanced Parkinson's disease. Stop abruptly if fever or confusion develop
 5. treats angina, AMI, HTN crisis, HF. Takes 1-3 minutes to work

6. Used in emergency to treat V-TACH
 7. decreases urinary frequency, urgency, and incontinence
 8. decreases involuntary symptoms of parkinsonism
 9. used for HTN and PVCs
 10. Improves memory loss in Alzheimer's disease
 13. increases HR for bradycardia
 16. Treats HF and A-FIB. This medication will need to be monitored for white, green, or yellow halos around objects indicating a toxicity

Word Bank

Atenolol	Pilocarpine	Pyridostigmine	Digoxin
Atropine	Carbidopa levodopa	Cyclobenzaprine	Benzatropine
Acebutolol	Tolcapone	Nitroglycerin	Amiodarone
Bethanechol	Epinephrine	Tolterodine	Rivastigmine
Diltiazem	Cardiac Glycosides		