

Charles Baudelaire

Across

- 6. An albatross is a type of...
- 9. "Mirrors as deep as the sea" is an example of what kind of figurative language?
- 11. Using the phrase "There, is nothing else but grace and measure, / Richness, quietness, and pleasure." is an example of this literary device
- 13. Attitude of "Invitation to the Voyage"
- 14. Baudelaire's appreciation for _____ is evident in many of his poems

- 15. "He just now so lovely, how comic and ugly!" and "the cripple who could fly" "Kings of the blue, awkward and shy" is an example of what kind of literary device?

Down

- 1. Which song models the theme of "Invitation to the Voyage?"
- 2. This word could accurately describe Baudelaire's character
- 3. Baudelaire had a deep love for these
- 4. "Those drowsy ships that dream of sailing forth; It is to satisfy" is an example of what kind of figurative language?

- 5. "No matter where you are you can always live a life of luxury in your imagination" is what part of "Invitation to the Voyage?"
- 7. "One with a stubby pipe teases his beak" "That accompany at languorous pace, Boats plying their way through bitter straits." is an example of what kind of literary device?
- 8. Baudelaire was sent here on a boat
- 10. This word means magnificent or splendid
- 12. "Through cloud-disheveled air" is an example if this type of figurative language

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|---------|-----------------|------------|-----------|--------|
| imagery | personification | repetition | mystical | Bird |
| imagery | rebellious | theme | sumptuous | simile |
| nature | Paradise | India | Oxymoron | cities |