

Chasing Lincoln's Killer Cross-Word Puzzle

Across

4. The river Booth and Herold crossed with the assistance of Tomas Jones to get to Virginia
8. The man who accompanied Lois Powell to Secretary of State Seward's house by shortly after left, he stayed with Booth on his journey, an amazing huntsman and outdoorsman
12. Vice President to Abraham Lincoln, the 17th president of the USA
13. What David Herold did at the farm, the act of giving oneself up to something/someone, to cease resistance to an enemy or opponent and submit to their authority
14. The war that would determine if slavery would be in effect or not
18. "Pro slavery" in the Civil War, the opposite of the Union, John Wilkes Booth dedicated his life to this

19. The house where Abraham Lincoln took refuge in after he was shot
20. The man who shot John Wilkes Booth at the tobacco barn

Down

1. The man who tried to kill Secretary of State Seward, one John Wilkes Booth faithful servants/friends, hung for assisting John Wilkes Booth
2. The Commanding General in the Civil War, the 18th president of the USA
3. The man who allowed Booth and Harold to stay at his farm the night of the assassination
5. The humorous play in which Abraham Lincoln attended with his wife the night he was shot, the last play Lincoln ever witnessed
6. The man who was supposed to kill Vice President Andrew Johnson but chickened out, the man who was reluctant to take on the mission that John Booth gave him
7. Mother of John Wilkes Booth friend, John Surratt, assisted Booth by letting him store weapons and packages at her tavern
9. The famous actor and assassinator that shot the fatal bullet that killed Abraham Lincoln
10. "Anti slavery" in the Civil War, opposite of Confederacy
11. The gun that John Wilkes Booth used to kill Abraham Lincoln, this gun was made by Henry Deringer
15. One of the main settings of the story, were the White House is, the base for the Union in the Civil War
16. Where Lincoln was assassinated by John Wilkes Booth, John Wilkes Booth's workplace
17. The year the Confederacy fell, the year Abraham Lincoln died, and the year the Civil War ended