

Child Development

Across

2. Muscle control that allows the hand to do a task in the way the eye sees it done
3. An understanding that objects continue to exist even if a person cannot see them
6. An automatic body response to a stimulus
11. Process of mentally grouping objects or ideas into categories or classes based on some unique feature or common attribute
12. The ability to coordinate the small muscles in the arms, fingers and wrists to complete a task

15. Age determined by a birth date

16. The term used to refer to a child from the first year until the third birthday

Down

1. The coordination of the eye and hand
4. Watching another person's behavior, then acting out that behavior
5. Mental representations or concepts
7. The ability to arrange items in an increasing or decreasing order based on weight, volume, or size

8. Avoiding an acknowledgment to a child's inappropriate behavior if the behavior is not dangerous

9. Behaviors expected of girls or boys

10. Extreme allergic reaction that causes shock symptoms

13. Verbal and nonverbal actions by one person, setting an example for others

14. The ability to understand the feelings of others