Child Development

Across

1. starts around 18 months

- 3. You should ______ to your child
- 6. a 6-12 months a baby can the area of development that focuses on the child's brain and problem solving Larger movements your baby makes with its arms,legs, feet or entire body around 11-13 months is when a child learns to

15. Taking care of small children for play17. at five months shows interest in

18. your baby learns to control his _____

before his shoulder

20. using your mind and being creative24. the process in which the baby's teeth begin to form

25. memory and _____ spans are improving

- 26. to gain knowledge
- 27. a portable container for holding liquids

- 28. milk provides
- 30. a child between the ages of 2 & 3 31. a child between the ages of 0 to 12
- months

32. learning through a system or school Down

2. making a picture by ____

- 4. An activity children do everyday
- 5. the process of doing something in
- order to achieve a purpose
- 7. The stage that deals with how you interact with others

o inforta had

8. infants bed

9. being connected to someone most commonly through friendship or family

10. a way that infant attempts to

- communicate before talking
- 13. start tummy time soon after
- 16. The process of developing physically
- 19. The sounds a young infant makes
- when happy
- 21. Basic unit of hereditary

22. recalling or recognising previous events

23. to hold something like a crayon29. what a baby shows when happy, sad or angry