

Name: _____ Date: _____

Child and family law

Across

- 6. Biological parents
- 8. the right of the non-custodial parent to certain prearranged visits with the child
- 9. within adoption, the process of matching a child and adoptive parent(s), then monitoring the family
- 11. the care and control of a child awarded by the courts
- 12. the right of the non-custodial parent to flexible and regular visits with the child
- 13. brothers and sisters or stepbrothers and stepsisters

- 14. any behavior that endangers a child's physical, mental, and moral well being

Down

- 1. the person who attends to the child's daily needs
- 2. a type of joint custody where the child spends equal or nearly equal time with both parents
- 3. the principle upon which a judge issues of custody of children and access

- 4. the right to the non-custodial parent to visits with the child at specified times under the supervision of someone like a grandparent or social worker
- 5. A court order permanently granting legal custody of the child to the crown
- 7. a type of joint custody in which the child lives with one parent, but the other has generous access
- 10. the right of the non-custodial parent to visit with the child and inquire about the child's health, welfare, and education