

Name: _____ Date: _____

Childcare puzzle 1

- |   |                                 |
|---|---------------------------------|
| 1. When writing observations about what a child is doing it is important to be  | A. visible                      |
| 2. When a child picks up a small bead with their thumb and index finger they are using a  | B. pincer grasp                 |
| 3. When a child is kicking a football they are using their  | C. domains                      |
| 4. The process which a child learns to interact with others around them   | D. gross motor skills           |
| 5. These are different temperament styles   | E. 40 weeks                     |
| 6. Social, emotional, communication language and literacy, physical and cognitive are   | F. flexible, fearful and fiesty |
| 7. Documentation is a tool that can help make a child's learning more   | G. teratogens                   |
| 8. Observations and documentation can help create a   | H. objective                    |
| 9. This is a key responsibility of early childhood educators it helps them to gain a deeper understanding about how children think, learn and make sense of their world | I. social development           |
| 10. After 28 weeks the fetus has reached the period of  | J. viability                    |
| 11. A full term pregnancy usually lasts for   | K. holistic picture             |
| 12. It is important to avoid these when pregnant  | L. observation                  |