

Children's Literature: Part 1 - Head Knowledge

Across

2. He promoted a gentler way of raising children.

7. Abbreviated first name of Mrs. Hathorn's favorite children's author.

8. The first name of a Danish children's author - think about ducks and mermaids.

9. Traditional way of telling stories before the printing press was invented.

11. An imaginary author with a focus on children's nursery rhymes.

12. An ancient Greek who was famous for hundreds of _____.

13. Last name of American author who wrote about adventure. His first real name is Samuel.

14. An award that goes to a distinguished American author yearly.

Down

1. We learn from the stings in life.

3. Auggie

4. A precept we should all strive towards.

5. Early children's literature was mostly used for the purpose of teaching ABCs and _____.

6. A sturdy type of book that very young children enjoy handling.

10. She is credited as being the first author who used illustrations to match the words.