

Name: _____

Date: _____

Christina_Phan_chapter 12

Across

2. To place under government control
 10. A defensive alliance aimed at preventing the spread of communism
 11. The 46-year long rivalry "war" between the United States and the Soviet Union
 12. National Aeronautics and Space Administration; the Congress' organization for space endeavors
 13. The alliance formed by the Soviet Union and its satellite states as a rival to NATO
 14. The Western European and North American nations' alliance formed to counter Soviet expansion
 15. The policy in which the United States would respond to communist threats to its allies by threatening to use force

16. House Un-American Activities Committee; the House's organized investigation of possible coup via facism
 17. The reaction towards the threat of communism working to overthrow current American life
 19. The new head of the Soviet Union succeeding Stalin
 20. The location at which Korea was divided into two independent countries by the United States and the Soviet Union

Down

1. The program where the United States and the Soviet Union were equally capable of annihilating the other to theoretically procure a standstill
 3. The theoretical (mostly) barrier between the Soviet Union and the West put into place after the end of World War 2

4. The recovery program where the U.S. aided Europe after World War 2 over four years
 5. The policy in which conflicts were targeted specifically, rather than total victory
 6. The Eastern European countries (and the eastern portion of Germany) controlled by the Soviet Union
 7. The guideline for American foreign policy; promise of aid to nations struggling with communist influence
 8. The airlifting of supplies to West Berlin, which was blockaded by the Soviet Union
 9. George F. Kennan's blueprint for American policy
 18. The Central Intelligence Agency; the Congress-created intelligence-gathering organization