

Civics Review - Category 1: Origins of Government

Across

9. the idea that those who govern must follow the laws; no one is above the law

11. Enlightenment thinker whose idea of separation of power influenced the U.S. government

13. a government document written in 1215 that limited the king's power and protected the rights of the nobility

14. the process of formally approving something

15. a pamphlet published by Thomas Paine in 1776 to convince the American colonists to support becoming independent from England

16. a document written in 1776 that listed the basis for democratic government and the grievances of the colonists

17. the belief that individuals are born with basic rights that cannot be taken away by governments

18. the structure of the federal government, according to the U.S. Constitution, that sets up three branches with their own distinct powers and responsibilities

19. a government document written in 1689 that expanded the powers of the English Parliament and limited the powers of the king

Down

1. representative system where the people create and run their own government

2. the first ten amendments of the U.S. Constitution

3. meeting in Philadelphia in 1787

4. an implied agreement among the people of an organized society that defines the rights, duties, and limitations of the governed and the government

5. first constitution of the United States

6. a period in European history when many educated people stressed the importance of learning and reasoning

7. a principle of government where each branch of government to limit the power of the other branches

8. to formally approve something

10. a group of people who feared a strong national government

12. Enlightenment thinker whose theory of social contract influenced the U.S. government