

Name: _____

Date: _____

Civil Law

Across

- 2. This is whether a reasonable person could expect that a certain result might follow from an action.
- 6. This involves whether an act or omission of the defendant resulted directly in the injury to the plaintiff.
- 7. This is the legal responsibility for a wrongful action.
- 9. This is careless conduct that causes injury to another person.
- 10. This is an injury, physical, emotional, economic or otherwise, suffered by a person for which another may be held legally responsible,

- 11. This is the the expected standard of care is that which a reasonable person would meet.

Down

- 1. In a civil action, the party initiating the action is called the _____.
- 3. These are the award by a court to a plaintiff who successfully proves that injury suffered is the direct responsibility of the defendant.
- 4. This law regulates private legal affairs.
- 5. This is the obligation that is required to ensure that others are not harmed by one's actions.
- 8. in a civil action, the person alleged to have undertaken the tortuous act is called the _____>