

Civil War Union Generals Crossword

Across

3. This general was a unfortunate leader of the Union Army, taking loss after loss

9. One of five men to ever be promoted to the rank of a five star general in the army

13. This war general was rumored to be the creator of baseball but never admitted to creating it

15. Was a civil engineer and an army officer before serving as a Union general during the Civil War

16. This general fought in many battles and his best known for taking Atlanta

Down

1. Led the Union army during the later years of the civil war

2. Was a Union general in the Civil War and a career army officer and suffered losses in Gettysburg and Chancellorsville

4. This general surrendered Fort Sumter and started as a Major and ending as a Brigadier General

5. Was a soldier, industrialist, railroad executive, and a inventor

6. Beside being a soldier, he was a lawyer and eventually a politician for the state of Massachusetts

7. This man was a US Army officer for his entire career and after that turned out to be a nominee for office of President in 1880

8. Happened to be a Union general during the Civil War and a extremely controversial politician

10. Served as an army officer throughout his career and a Union general

11. Was a Union general and an army officer and was well known for his association with Ulysses S. Grant

12. During early years of the civil war, this man lead the Potomac army and ran for POTUS against Abraham Lincoln

14. He happened to be a United States Army officer who served in the civil war and Indian wars