

Name: _____

Date: _____

Classification Glossary Crossword

Across

2. The highest level of classification for organisms

3. A cold-blooded animal with dry, scaly skin that lays eggs on land

5. The level of classification below family and above species

9. A chart used to classify things by giving two choices at each step

12. A living thing; something that carries out life processes

14. The name for a species used by scientists around the world

15. The level of classification below class and above family

16. The level of classification below genus

18. The scientific system used worldwide to classify organisms

19. What's a method that is used to organising and filing objects and organisms according to their characteristics.

Down

1. A scientist who studies living things

4. What is a cold-blooded animal with slimy skin that lays eggs in water?

6. The level of classification below kingdom and above class

7. A cold-blooded animal with scales that lays eggs in water

8. The everyday name of a species in a language such as English

10. The level of classification below order and above genus

11. A warm-blooded animal with hair that gives birth to live young

13. A warm-blooded animal with feathers that lays eggs

17. The level of classification below phylum and above order