

Name: _____

Date: _____

Classification of living organisms

Across

2. A cell with no nucleus of defined organelles.

9. A naming system that gives each organism a unique two part scientific name.

12. Consists of the genus and species, both written in italics.

14. They make their own food.

15. Made of more than one cell.

16. The process of grouping things based on their similarities.

Down

1. Eat other organisms.

3. Two parents combining genetic material.

4. Only one parent and produces offspring identical to the parent.

5. They consume other organisms for food.

6. Organisms make their own food using photosynthesis.

7. Scientific study of how living things are classified.

8. A series of statements that allow you to classify different organisms.

10. Breaks down dead organisms.

11. Only one cell.

13. A cell with a defined nucleus and defined organelles.