

Climate Vocabulary

Across

5. A densely frosted region, Rich in biodiversity that gets heavy rainfall, typically found in the tropical zone around the equator

10. A dry region that gets very little precipitation can be in tropical or polar zone

11. part of the arctic zone, a flat treeless region where the soil underground is permanently frozen

12. a region of land covered by marshes or swamps , the florida everglades are an example

15. An imaginary line drawn around the circumference of the earth

16. A measure of how far north or south a location is from the equator

17. a continuous movement of water or air in the same direction

Down

1. little precipitation, extremely cold temperatures, farthest away from the equator, north and South Pole

2. The distance away from a large body of water like large lakes the ocean or the Gulf of Mexico

3. a large, open and mostly flat region covered with grasses, often used for grazing animals

4. An area that has similar average temperatures of precipitationAn area that has similar average temperatures of precipitation

6. moderate temperatures that change with season, found in middle latitudes, differing amounts of precipitation depending on season and elevation

7. climate characterized by warm temperatures year-round, ample participation, closet climate zone to the equator

8. the height of an object above sea level or ground level

9. the height of a location above or below sea level

13. The physical features of the piece of land

14. The average of weather conditions in one region over long period of time affected by elevation, latitude and distance from large bodies of water