

Name: _____ Date: _____

Clinical Judgement

Across

3. The nursing process is derived from a scientific ordered approach to gather data and solve problems is call the _____ method.

4. The foundation of safe and effective nursing practice is the ability to make good clinical _____.

7. Evidence-based knowledge is based on clinical expertise and _____.

9. A _____ is an unsettled or unsteady state.

10. The levels of critical thinking include, basic critical thinking, complex critical thinking, and _____.

11. _____ moves from the specific to the general.

12. A verbal description of feelings, perceptions, and self reported symptoms is _____ data.

13. The process by which a nurse reviews his/her practice to describe, analyze, and evaluate results is known as _____.

Down

1. _____ reasoning moves from the general to the specific.

2. Collecting a comprehensive set of data points, recognizing and identifying specific patterns occurs during the _____ stage of the nursing process.

5. Concepts for critical thinkers include seeking the truth, being open-minded, working systematically, and _____ results.

6. _____ is forming a conclusion based upon evidence and reasoning.

8. _____ involves the ability to perform nursing skills proficiently.