

Name: _____

Date: _____

Clinical Terms: Muscle System

Across

5. Any muscular disease
 7. Condition of great resistance to the stretch of muscle
 8. When muscle fibers tear if overstretched. Common among athletes
 14. Prolonged muscle spasm
 17. Inflammation of fibrous connective tissues, especially in muscle fascia. Another name for fibrositis is muscular rheumatism
 18. Pain from any muscular disease or disorder
 19. When a tendon becomes painfully inflamed and swollen following injury of the repeated stress of athletic activity
 20. Partial or slight inability to move muscles

21. Group of inherited disorders in which deficiency of dystrophin or associated glycoproteins collapses muscle cells.

22. Degenerative disease in which fibrous connective tissue replaces skeletal muscle tissue

Down

1. Spontaneous contractions of individuals muscle fibers, producing rapid and uncoordinated activity within muscle.
 2. Technique for recording electrical changes in muscle tissues
 3. Study of muscles
 4. Cutting of muscle tissue
 6. Series of involuntary contractions of various voluntary muscles

9. Chronic disease in which muscles are weak and easily fatigued because of malfunctions of neuromuscular systems
 10. Soreness on front of leg due to straining of anterior leg muscles, often result of walking up and down hills
 11. Any muscular disease
 12. Inflammation of skeletal muscle tissue
 13. Persistent quivering of muscle
 15. Condition where the neck contracts involuntarily. It is also referred to as wryneck
 16. Tumor composed of muscle tissue