Cliques

Across

1. A 'home base' for some students to be with others of the same ethnic heritage
4. Teens that excel at school work and often suffer from 'academic anxiety' due to their desire to do well and please their parents
8. Kids without friends or who are content to be alone; ostracized by their peers due to (incorrect) perceptions on school-shooters
9. 'Clique jumpers' who move between different friend groups
10. The stereotypical 'friend groups' or 'peer groups' of the American teen

12. Know for their love of the color black; incorrectly associated with teen-trends of cutting and self-harm
13. 'good-looking' kids who often have the newest clothes and electronics; sometimes seen as bullies or 'the mean girls'

Down

2. Know for their creative self-expression and use of art, color, and body-art; generally liked due to participation in extracurricular activities
3. The newest clique; teens who embrace Japanese pop-culture and often share their love of it online

5. Well-rounded teacher's pets who are generally liked by everyone and participate in many extracurricular activities and volunteer work
6. Teens that don't fit in with other cliques, and therefore band together; liked by other teens
7. Sporty teens; sometimes seen as bullies unlike the well respected Athletes
11. Kids who smoke weed and do drugs; they have lost social-status due to the current stigma against doing drugs
