

Name: _____

Date: _____

Cocaine Vocabulary

Across

5. when someone experiences some perception related to touch when it is not really there
 10. What is unusually high excitability?
 12. A drug affecting the central nervous system, which can cause dizziness, euphoria, loss of memory, lack of coordination and unconsciousness.
 14. What is a state of confusion, restlessness and sometimes hallucinations caused by fever, poisoning or brain injury?
 16. What is an enlarged or description of the pupils of the eye?
 17. Relating to or used for the sense of touch
 18. What is a state of being nervous and anxious and likely to lose control?

19. What is the perception of somebody or something that is not really there, which is often a response to some drugs?

Down

1. Not having or being prevented from having sufficient sleep
 2. a sudden blockage or rupture of the blood vessel in the brain resulting in loss of consciousness, partial loss of movement or loss of speech
 3. disturbances in a person's emotional life
 4. related to hearing
 6. If you are unpredictable and unstable
 7. What is lessening or breakdown of the ability to breathe oxygen into the body
 8. damage to the part of the body having to do with production of children

9. What is unusual stimulation?
 11. any of the veins that transport blood through the body
 13. What is a highly addictive central nervous system stimulant: an illegal, man-made synthetic drug in the same class as cocaine and other powerful street drugs?
 15. What is a feeling of great joy, excitement or well-being?