

Cognition

Across

3. type of amnesia; the inability to remember information previously stored in memory
 4. mental pictures
 6. another word for declarative memory; knowing what
 7. shortest of our memories and generally holds sights, sounds, smells, and textures for a fraction of a second
 8. encoding of meaning
 12. memories gradually fade in strength over time
 14. new blocks old
 16. a system that encodes, stores, and retrieves information
 19. the retention of encoding material over time

20. conscious repetition of information to maintain it in consciousness
 21. old blocks new
 23. another word for procedural memory; knowing how
 24. encoding of picture images
 25. requires attention and conscious effort
 26. capacity of short term memory
Down
 1. information in the working memory is gradually changed over to long term memory
 2. forgetting when a memory cannot be retrieved because of interference
 5. another word for working memory
 9. a quick association that leads to recall of a memory

10. unconscious encoding of incidental information
 11. the locating and recovering of information from memory
 13. a retrieval method in which one must reproduce previously presented material
 15. encoding of sound
 17. search terms used to activate memory
 18. type of amnesia; the inability to form memories from new materials
 22. extremely vivid and clear memories (ie. 9/11)