

Name: _____

Date: _____

Cognitive Psychology

Across

2. What were Sebastian and Hernandez - Gil using as a measure of loop capacity in their 2012 study?
4. Baddley's experiments were very artificial, unlike real life. He had a low type of validity. What was this?
6. What test did we carry out in our Cognitive Practical?
8. What is Alzheimers a form of?
10. Which memory held facts?
11. What was the key factor affecting Sebastian and Hernandez -Gils' results?

13. The Working Memory Model described 3 main components. What was the main component?
14. What is the part in the WMM that handles auditory info?
16. How is information stored in these stores?
17. Which memory held experiences?
18. Working Memory Model was mainly created by who?
19. What was the most recent slave subsystem added to the WMM?

Down

1. Memory in the MSM would decay if not used long enough in what store?

3. Fragments of stored info are reassembled during recall. What is this described as?
5. Baddeley's study had well controlled procedures. What strong validity did he have?
7. The MSM was created by who?
9. In the classic study, Baddley had semantic similar words and dissimilar. What did he also have?
12. What are all types of dementia?
15. For the Cognitive Practical, we aimed to investigate the effects of what on the STM?