

Name: _____

Date: _____

Cognitive Psychology

Across

1. How does sensory memory encode information?
4. What is the memory of meaningful events called?
7. What did Schmolck et al's study focus on?
9. In conclusion to Baddeley's study, how does the LTM encode information?
10. What is the memory of how to do things called?
11. What type of memory was the focus of Baddeley's study?

12. How long does sensory memory hold information? include the word 'seconds'.

13. Who proposed the theory of Long Term Memory?

14. What part of the working memory model deals with auditory information?

15. What are memories grouped into categories called?

16. How does the STM encode information?

Down

2. What is the memory of particular events and specific information called?

3. What part of the working memory model controls information flow?

5. What part of the working memory model is not limited to one sense only?

6. What part of Clive Wearing's brain was damaged after a viral infection?

8. What is the memory of relationships and how things fit together called?