

Cold War

Across

5. Using figurative language, Winston Churchill says this in a speech that would later represent the division in Europe of the East and West

6. This German city was divided by the allies after WWII

10. This organization was set up after WWII to protect members from aggression and prevent future wars

11. A defensive military alliance set up to defend western nations

12. Revolutionary who becomes the first communist dictator in the West

Down

1. In response to NATO, the Soviet Union and its allies form this defensive military alliance

2. American president who demanded that the Cubans remove missiles from the island

3. Willingness to go to the edge of war

4. The United States sets up this assistance program to help European countries rebuild after WWII

7. After the Soviets block all traffic into Berlin the Americans and British responded with an

8. The conflict between the United States and the Soviet Union from 1945-1990.

9. The failed invasion of Cuba to take down its communist dictator took place here