College Application Terms By S.Vallejo

Across

6. Some colleges/universities require students to submit their final transcripts and discipline records at the end of their senior year in high school

9. colleges/universities that do not consider a college applicant's financial needs when deciding admittance use a "need blind admission" policy. Other schools that use a "need aware" policy consider financial aid needs as part of the admission process to ensure they have enough aid to meet the needs of all accepted students

10. Refers to colleges/universities with a focus and core curriculum that includes classes in the arts, humanities, social sciences and sciences

Down

1. Scholarships, grants, and discounts that colleges can award to admitted students without regard to financial need. Merit aid may be based on specific achievements

2. Some colleges/universities offer a wide timeframe rather than a specific deadline date for students to submit their application and receive acceptance status

3. Many college/university applications require recommendation letters about the applicant from a teacher and/or guidance counselor

4. Universities that offer advanced degrees award graduate degrees upon completion. Students must finish their undergraduate coursework before beginning a graduate degree program

5. is a college applicant whose parent(s)/legal guardian(s) did not complete a bachelor's degree. If an older sibling completed a bachelor's degree, the applicant would still be a first-generation college student

7. Can include students of all races but primarily serves African American students. Many HBCUs were formed after the American Civil War to offer graduate and undergraduate degrees for Black Americans

8. The form to be completed to determine a student's eligibility for federal financial aid, which is based primarily on the student's family's annual income and assets
