

College Application Terms G.Nunez

Across

3. some colleges require students to submit their final transcripts and discipline records at the end of their senior year in high school . a significant slip in grades , attendance status .

4. universities that offer advanced degree award graduate degrees upon completion

5. students can get "work study" jobs on campus and the u.s. federal government helps pay their work study

7. income-eligible students may be able to waiver or reduce collage application fees and related ACT/SAT fees. Cheek the college board

8. can include student of all races but primarily serves africa american student.

9. refers to college/universities with a focus and core curriculum that includes classes in the art,humanities,social sciences,and sciences

10. (also referred to as an Undergraduate Degree) most college award a "bachelors degree" when the student completes his/her required coursework and graduates.

Down

1. are tyoically schools that offer two-year degrees in specific employment- preparation skills such as computer technology,culinary arts ,and health care.

2. scholarships,grant,and discounts that colleges can award to admitted students without regard to financial need

6. the form to be completed to determine a student eligibility for federal financial aid which is based primarily on the student family annual income and assets.

Word Bank

merit aid or merit-based aid

hbcus

Bachelors degree

final report

fafsa

application fee waivers liberal arts/education technical school or tech school work study

graduate degree