

Name: _____

Date: _____

College Application Terms by L. Dawson

Across

2. Many colleges/universities use this system, a basic college application that can be used for multiple schools.

7. Most colleges award a _____ when the student completes his/her required coursework and graduates

8. The form to be completed to determine a student's eligibility for federal financial aid, which is based primarily on the student's family's annual income and assets.

9. Some colleges/universities offer _____ deadlines (usually in november) by which students submit their full application before the regular deadline (usually in December and January) and receive their acceptance status earlier than the regular deadline. If accepted, the student does not have to commit to attending the school.

11. Income-eligible students may be able to waive or reduce college application fees and related ACT/SAT fees.

13. A more detailed financial aid application than the FAFSA and is required by some but not all, colleges/universities.

Down

1. A college applicant whose parent(s)/legal guardians did not complete a bachelor's degree. If an older sibling completed a bachelor's degree, the applicant is still a _____ college student.

3. _____ is similar to early action, but if the student is accepted to the college/university, it is a binding agreement and the student must attend the school. _____ applications are only prudent if it is definitely a first choice school

4. The terms "College" and "University" can both represent four-year post-secondary schools. The main difference between the two is that universities usually include four-year undergraduate degrees and graduate degrees, whereas most colleges don't have graduate programs

5. Some colleges/universities require students to submit their final transcripts and discipline records at the end of their senior year in highschool. A significant slip in grades, attendance, or discipline records could jeopardize college acceptance status.

6. Most colleges/universities require essays as a part of the application. Essay _____ are the question or statement to be addressed within the essay content.

10. a measure of how a student's GPA compares to other students in the same graduating class (e.g., "Top 10%" "Top 25%")

12. The grade point average of core classes (e.g., Math, English, Science, Social Studies, not electives)

Word Bank

FAFSA

CSS Profile

University vs. College

Core GPA

First-Generation

Application Fee Waivers

Common Application

Essay Prompt

Class rank

Bachelor's Degree

Early Action

Final Report

Early Decision