

College Lingo (Des Moines Edition)

Across

2. What pays for college credit hours
 10. School official, usually assigned by your college or university, who can help choose your classes and make sure you are taking the right courses to graduate
 11. Classes where you have the opportunity to take a test at the end to earn college credit
 12. Test you take to get into a four year college or university
 13. Free application for financial aid
 16. University that is privately-funded; tuition is the same for all students
 17. Type of financial aid you have to pay back over time

18. Community college in Des Moines
 19. Institution that offers multiple degrees, including Bachelor's Degrees and advanced degrees
 20. University in Iowa known for teaching, business, and youth services
 21. University in Iowa known for English, medicine, and law

Down

1. Where you can go in high school to take classes for college credit
 3. Types of financial aid you don't have to pay back
 4. A two year degree, usually earned at a community college

5. Academic subjects such as literature, philosophy, mathematics, and social and physical sciences
 6. University in Iowa known for engineering, agricultural sciences, and veterinary medicine
 7. University in Des Moines
 8. A four year degree
 9. University that is funded by the government; less expensive for residents of the state where they are located
 14. The area you study in college
 15. Money provided through scholarships, loans, work study, and grants to help pay for college

Word Bank

FAFSA
 Financial aid
 Loan
 AP
 University
 ACT

Advisor
 University of Northern Iowa
 Drake University
 Central Campus
 Associate's Degree

Iowa State University
 Tuition
 Bachelor's Degree
 Liberal arts
 Public university

University of Iowa
 DMACC
 Private university
 Major
 Scholarships and grants