

Name: _____

Date: _____

College Terms

Across

4. the form that families fill out to apply for federal grants, loans, and work-study funds for college students

5. town where University of Tennessee is located

7. person at a college or university who helps students decide what classes to take, what major to pursue, etc.

11. a scholarship and mentoring program focused on increasing the number of students that attend college in Tennessee.

12. campus office that coordinates on-campus living

13. transition period during which a borrower is not required to make student loan payments

15. an area of interest studied at the same time as a major; however, fewer courses are required

17. standardized test used by many colleges and universities to evaluate applicants' academic skills and abilities

18. period of time designated by colleges and universities to divide the academic year

19. type of school that offers special emphasis on education and training in technical fields

20. an institution of higher learning offering courses of general study leading to associate, bachelor's, or graduate level degree programs

21. booklet published by a school that contains detailed descriptions of courses and degree offerings

22. place where students can purchase supplies and books for their classes

Down

1. type of degree given upon completion of four years of full-time study

2. an academic subject area in which a student chooses to earn a degree

3. campus office that makes the decision about your qualifications to attend

6. a course students must take before enrolling in another, more challenging course

8. Town where East Tennessee State University is located

9. type of student loan in which the borrower is responsible for interest from the date the loan is disbursed

10. a student working toward a master's or doctoral degree

14. type of degree given upon completion of two years of study

16. Federal grant program providing need-based grants to low-income students