

College application terms by A. Rodriquez

Across

4. primarily offers degrees in undergraduate and graduate programs that focus on certain things like juilliard school, business or engineering .
5. Students can get jobs on campus and the U.S federal government helps pay their work study salary.
6. This includes info about students class rank, GPA,academic courses,attendance rates, and any discipline incidents. requirements of cllege application .
7. Each colleges have different SAT and ACT college code numbers. Based on college codes sumitted by applicant.
8. Weighted GPAs include an extra point on a 4.0 point scale for honors and advanced placement classes. an "A" is worth a 4.0 point scale and a "B" is worth a 3.0.

9. awardedwhen student completes four year college coursework and requirements.

10. unlike subsidized loans, the government does not supplement interest accrued during college.

Down

1. Students waitlisted may be accepted later if other students already accepted or ahead of them on the waitlist choose not to go to that school and tell them why or how your interested.
2. Typically schools that offer two year degrees in specific employment preparation skills, like computer technology,culinary arts, and health care.
3. If applicant qualifies based on FAFSA info, U.S govern pays for any interest accrued during college and gives loan grace period.