

Com-1010 Ch. 15

Across

3. What are tools to display the visuals you selected?
6. What are the high and low registers of your voice?
8. What is how rapidly you speak?
10. How do you manage your nervousness?
13. What doesn't create a sense of immediacy?
15. What type of speaking is based on a written text that you read word for word?
16. What is a common experience for many people when giving a speech?
17. What do you use to make the audience hear your words clearly?

19. What is the richness and sound quality of your voice?

20. What type of language style is usually more formal and detailed?

Down

1. What do you use to over emphasize a point?
2. What can you show your audience in order to represent your idea in your speech?
4. What type of language style uses words that are similar to how people talk?
5. What are words that lessen a messages impact?

7. What type of speaking includes elements of both manuscript and impromptu?

9. What can you do poorly to cause your audience to question your credibility?

11. What are phrases that that remove responsibilities for the statement you're making?

12. What type of language uses words that suggest they're uncertain about their message?

14. What type of speech style includes the ability to present yourself and your message confidently?

18. What type of speaking requires making public remarks with little time for preparation?