

Communications Crossword Chapter 2

Across

3. The process by which you learn the culture you're born.

7. Culture information that is explicitly stated in the verbal message

12. Culture values aggressiveness material success and strength.

13. Culture that teaches members the importance of group values, traditions, and conformity.

14. Communication that refers to communication between persona who have different cultural beliefs, values, or ways of behaving.

15. An identification with an acceptance of your culture's teaching

18. The values, ways of behaving and beliefs of a host culture become more a part of the immigratn's culture.

19. The tendency to see others and their behaviors through your own cultural filters.

20. Culture information in communications through context of in the person

Down

1. A fixed impression of a group of people

2. An orientation that promotes the importance of future rewards.

4. Is an attitude and way of behaving in which you're aware of and acknowledge cultural differences.

5. Looks more to the past and the present.

6. Cultures that have more people who are unhappy.

8. Culture that teaches members the importance of individual values.

9. Variations in a language, mainly in the grammar and the semantics.

10. The process by which you learn the rules and norms of a culture different from your native culture

11. Those that emphasize the gratification of desire. Focuses on having fun and enjoying life.

16. Culture values modesty, concerns for relationships and the quality of life and tenderness

17. Common courtesy