

Community Exam 1

Across

- 7. animals or arthropods that transmit through biological and mechanical routes
- 9. any inanimate objects, materials, or substances, that act as transport agents for a microbe
- 11. these activities enhance resources directed at improving well-being
- 12. diseases always present in a population
- 16. state of complete physical, mental, and social well-being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity
- 17. the administration of a vaccine or toxoid to confer active immunity by stimulating the body to produce its own antibodies
- 19. prevention that focuses on limitation of disability and rehabilitation
- 21. enforced isolation or restriction of movement of those who have been exposed to an infectious agent during the incubation period

- 22. variables that increase the rate of disease in people who have them
- 23. agents invade enter the human host through this
- 24. unexpected increase in occurrence of an infectious disease in a geographic area during a limited period
- 25. prevention that refers to early detection and prompt intervention during early disease
- 26. a mechanism for the ongoing collection of community health information

Down

- 1. prevention that relates to activities directed at preventing a problem before it occurs
- 2. national prevention initiative published by US Department of Health and Human Services
- 3. agents leave through the human host through this
- 4. the number of new cases of a disease in those exposed to the disease

- 5. these activities protect people from disease and the effects of disease
- 6. nursing practice and public health practice that promotes/preserves health of populations
- 8. your professor's last name
- 10. a process by which active or passive immunity to an infectious disease is induced or amplified
- 13. steady occurrence of an epidemic that covers a large geographic area or is evident worldwide
- 14. subgroup or subpopulation that has some common characteristics or concerns
- 15. identifies risk factors and diseases in their earliest stages
- 18. age, general health status, nutrition, and health behaviors contribute to a host's
- 20. art and science of preventing disease, prolonging life and promoting health through organized