

Complete the crossword to see how Dickens uses language and structure

Across

- 2. The Phantom spread its dark robe before him for a moment, like a wing. What type of language feature is this?
- 7. "Lead on," said Scrooge. "Lead on. The night is waning fast, and it is precious time to me, I know. Lead on, Spirit." What type of structure feature is this?
- 8. Upon the floor within, were piled up heaps of rusty keys, nails, chains, hinges, files, scales, weights, and refuse iron of all kinds. What kind of structure feature is this?
- 9. Your nature intercedes for me....The kind hand trembled. What kind of structure feature is this?

10. 'Dwindled' is what type of subject terminology?

Down

- 1. Oh cold, cold, rigid, dreadful Death, set up thine altar here. What type of language structure is this?
- 3. The Phantom slowly, gravely, silently approached. What is this language feature called?
- 4. "No, Spirit! Oh no, no!". What type of stucture is used here?
- 5. Walled in by houses.... choked up with too much burying; fat with repleted appetite. What is this language structure called?
- 6. Alleys and archways. What type of language feature is this?