Compliance Challenge

Across

1. Merck's _____ could be damaged if laws, regulations, and Codes of Conduct are not followed.

4. Conduct activities and interactions with the medical and scientific community in a manner that protects our _____ property and respects that of others.

12. _____ conduct not only conforms with applicable laws but also maintains or strengthens the reputation of the company, typically through meet- ing or exceeding the responsibilities to stakeholder groups.

13. Ensure that all communications shared with the medical and scientific community are based on accurate and _____ scientific information.

14. Compensating for Services at Fair Market Value is one of Merck's 10 Guiding _____.

15. Employees and non-employees may remain _____ when reporting an alleged compliance violation.

16. When a meeting can be conducted at a Customer's office or a nearby Merck site, a Business Meeting Over Meal would be considered _____.

Down

2. Improper business conduct can result in many serious consequences, including _____.

3. The Rule of Thumb to remember for compliance issues is "___ ___, ___ ___!" (4 words)

5. Activities that seek to improperly influence the decision making of a health care professional may violate ___-_____ laws. (hyphenated word -- do not include hyphen)

6. Raising a concern in "____ _____" means that you have made a genuine attempt to provide honest and accurate information even if you are later proven to be mistaken. (2 words)

7. Merck's ____ __ _____, Our Values and Standards, are our universal statement of values, standards and ethical principles that guide your daily operations. (2 words)

8. Your first option to report concert or allegations of misconduct is ____ _____. (2 words)

9. Exceptions to anti-kickback laws are referred to as ____ _____. (2 words)

10. Every employee has an _____ to report potential violations.

11. Every Merck employee and non-employee is expected to exhibit Executional _____ with each activity, every day.