

Name: _____

Comprehension 2,5

Across

1. A period of dry weater

8. The leading edge of a fire

10. A violently whirled column of air seen as a funnel-shaped cloud that destroys everything in its path

11. An overflowing of water in an area normally dry

12. A high sea wave caused by an earthquake or other disturbance.

13. A sever fall of small balls of ice

14. A sliding mass of soil or rocks down a slope

15. A fire in srub or a forest

Down

2. A cyclone that is located over a tropical area

3. A type of flood caused by heavy or excessive rainfall in a short period of time

4. A violent tremor of the Earth's crust

5. A line drawn on a weather map or chart that connects points at which the barometric pressure is the same

6. Something happening in the physical environment such as a storm, volcanic eruption or earthquake

7. A complex series of climatic change

9. Period of hot weather