

Computer System Crossword

Across

2. This device allows you to type words and commands into your computer.
3. This component calculates the commands and processes of the entire computer.
7. This component allows all of the other components to work with each other.
8. This component shows the image of the computer system on a screen, _ _ _ _ _ Card.
9. A smaller, foldable version of a computer.
10. This component stores all of your photos, music, videos, files and applications

Down

1. This is the name given to the entire system as a whole.
4. This device allows you to click on items within your computer system.
5. This device is necessary to show the image of your computer, the image generated by the Video Card.
6. This device is a faster cable that sends data from the Video Card, to your Monitor.
11. This component determines the speed that the system, and it's applications run at.