Computer Vocab

Across

7. The four ink colors used in process printing

8. A unit that is used to measure the resolution of a printer or image setter

9. A file with uncompressed data that has not been altered, used by cameras

12. The production of a seperate printing plate for each ink color that will be used to print an image

13. The file format based on Adobe PostScript

14. Tag image file format

15. Pixels displayed in a rectangular grid

Down

1. A proprietary file that allows the user to work with the images

2. An area that can be protected and isolated from changes applied to the rest of the image

3. The earliest computer graphics display were drawn on so-called vector displays, because the electron beam which produced the image was under software control

4. This indicates the number of pixels per image.

5. An image dipicted using only straight and curved lines

6. A plain and simple font that has no fancy designs on each character

10. Graphic interchange format

11. A web based format that supports one alpha channel and transperency