

Computer hardware

Across

6. Each letter is given a number which can then be represented in binary
7. The part of a computer responsible for running algorithms
9. Stores currently running apps or files you have open
10. An output device that allows you to see information

11. An input device that allows you to type information into a computer
12. Also known as RAM
13. Instructions that need to be followed to achieve a goal

Down

1. What does CPU stand for?
2. Sends data to the correct destination

3. A measure of CPU speed
4. Computers store data in...
5. Connects multiple devices together
8. Stores data permanently