

Connecting Ethics to Justice

Across

- 2. Not partial or biased; treating or affecting all equally
5. the power of a judge or public official to make decisions on various matters based on his/her opinion within general legal guidelines
10. Private or secret information
11. Conforming to accepted or morally approved standards of conduct
13. Insight or knowledge gained by thinking; the process of perceiving something

Down

- 1. the quality of state of being worthy, honored or esteemed
3. conforming to the technical or ethical standards of a profession
4. Capable of being used or seen; capable of being understood
6. The quality of being Just, impartial or fair; the principle or ideal of just dealing or right action

- 7. A predisposition or a preconceived opinion that prevents a person from impartially evaluating facts presented for determination 8. firm adherence to a code of especially moral or ethical values
9. according to law; not in violation of law; anything related to the law
12. above board; commendable, conscientious or correct