

Consumers and the law

Across

7. The principle remedy for breach of contract

9. The type of agreement made in the court of business that is intended to be legally binding

10. Words that clearly define the item/s in the contract and are legally binding

Down

1. A contract that can be rejected

2. A term of the contract that is not the main part of the contract

3. Australian ___ law

4. The type of agreement made between family members

5. The person making the offer

6. All ___ should be fit for the purpose for which they are intended

8. ___ Cannot be assumed as acceptance